Turkey Not To Enter War At Present Stage

Nation Studying Situation in Mediterranean With Great Britain, President Tells National Assembly

ANKARA, Turkey, Nov. 1.—(AP)—President Ismet Inom informed the national assembly today that Turkey will not enter the war now, but is studying the situation in the Mediterranean in collaboration with Great Britain.

The key to the decision seemed to observers to be in the president's statement that Turkey's relations with Soviet Russia "are now taking a friendly turn" after "passing through a critical stage" at the time of the Finnish-Russian war.

Today's War Moves

By J. W. T. MASON
British United Press Wire Report
Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON's announcement today that Naples has been bombed presumably indicates the British Air Force co-operating with the Greeks has carried the war into southern Italy for the first time.

The key to the decision seemed to observers to be in the president's statement that Turkey's relations with Soviet Russia "are now taking a friendly turn" after "passing through a critical stage" at the time of the Finnish-Russian war.

It is estimated that Turkey will fight instantly if attacked and declared. "We remain loyal to our friendship, obligations and ties of collaboration."

NO POLICY CHANGE
"Our neighbors, the Greeks, unfortunately have been called into the war and we, with our ally, Britain, are studying the situation," said President Inom. "Our country has decided to defend our nation and not change its policy. We have no external ambitions."

"The war is spreading to a point where the whole world may be involved. Several countries are under foreign occupation and it appears that this phase may last a long time."

"The youth of the Turkish nation of today will make the future wonder at its heroism." In an age in which the Turkish nation is urged to live, the Turkish nation advances toward the future and security.

AWAIT DEVELOPMENTS
The speech was interpreted to mean that Turkey has decided to await developments before going to war. These developments might be a direct attack on Turkey or entrance of Bulgaria into the Greek-Italian war on the side of the Axis.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH
The president spoke warmly of Soviet policy in the face of a dark world is one of the greatest security."

Inom told the assembly, nevertheless, that nothing is being spared in the defense of the Turkish republic's security."

He also said he had conferred with the Turkish premier, Beha Sagdam, conferred with the Greek Ambassador for half an hour.

ADVANCE FOR STORED GRAIN IS DEMANDED

Social Credit Group To Ask Action At Federal Session

An immediate advance to farmers against wheat stored on farms, pending availability of elevator space, will be demanded of the Dominion government at the coming session of parliament by Alberta's Social Credit members of the Commons.

A statement issued by the caucus Friday said that the federal government also would be asked to provide additional storage for the wheat crop, to take steps to handle and dump wheat so that it could be marketed without deterioration and to adjust the freight rate structure either arbitrarily or by bounding transportation companies.

"TEMPORARIZING"
In discussion of problems which will occupy the attention of parliament at the coming session, the statement on the caucus said, "some recentment was expressed at the inoperative efficiency and temporizing which are clearly evident in connection with the internal affairs of the country."

The statement said it was realized that the federal administration has a tremendous responsibility resting upon its shoulders in connection with Canada's war effort but the members "thought it inadvisable that more definite action had not been taken in connection with some problems that are very distressing to our people."

Among the most extensive of these are the problems incident to the wheat situation which the government must have foreseen for many months," it continued.

Attention was drawn to the federal government's failure to take advantage of available markets which were lost to Argentina through price manipulation. Furthermore, some criticism was expressed because of the government's failure to take steps to handle and dump wheat so that it could be marketed without deterioration.

WHEAT SURPLUS
The minister did not go into detail on the list of vessels other than to mention the Royal Canadian Navy. The minister gave figures on the production of new construction up to the present $13,275,000; production under $13,500,000; in completion of new construction $30,000,000.

Money spent so far went for ship building and construction.

Other Military Objectives Are Also Hit In Italian Port—German Merchant Ship Hit Off Norway

LONDON, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Royal Air Force bombers attacked the great industrial center of Naples in southern Italy last night and hit the railroad station, oil tanks and refineries, the air ministry announced today.

Able to "pinpoint" their targets, it said, the British forces roared over Naples in three waves and at times, swooped to within 2,000 feet of the city's rooftops to let go their bombs.

Emperor Haile Selassie Leads His People

LONDON, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Emperor Haile Selassie of Abyssinia is now in the Sudan preparing to lead the Abyssinian people in their struggle against the Italians, the British Broadcasting Corporation reported Thursday night.

Heavy bombs were dropped and many explosions were followed by fires during the 45-minute attack. Opposition from the ground defenses was described as "light and ineffectual."

The planes of two German fighters and one bomber were destroyed in a night raid over Britain, the air ministry announced tonight.

Refugees Are Thrown Into Panic

The Italian planes were like "T-shaped" specks high in a brilliant blue sky when they first appeared over the Athens-Piraeus zone, which was the famed Attica of ancient times.

Thousands of poverty-stricken refugees, most of whom have come here from Asia Minor in recent years, were thrown into panic by the raid. They rushed blindly from huts and ramshackle shelters along the road between Piraeus and Athens, seeking a place of safety against the bombs.

Beyond the hump of the hilly peninsula where the town of Piraeus spreads out beside an excellent harbor, the bark of anti-aircraft guns offered seemingly casual opposition to the Italian warcraft.

While bombs were falling on the harbor, I could hear the thud of other explosions to the north and see the puff of anti-aircraft shells exploding beyond the famed Acropolis as the raiders apparently dumped more bombs on the Tatoi airfield.

The all clear signal had not yet sounded at Piraeus when Greeks put out into the harbor in rowboats, gathering dead bodies from the water while anti-aircraft shells still were bursting high in the blue sky above the bay.

A third air raid alert was sounded later because one of the Greek planes had been shot down by the Italians. The Greek pilot was reported to have been killed.

Unofficial reports from the front opposite the Albania border told of increasing severe fighting on all sectors. New Greek reinforcements, including troops called up recently, were said to be arriving steadily in the battle zone.

U.S. Neutrality Fleet Away On Secret Mission

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The United States neutrality patrol fleet operating out of Key West, was at sea on a secret mission today and may arrive here at Washington declined comment on the sudden arrivals.

The Miami Herald said it had a "confidential" source that a "contingent of United States naval forces" was under way near St. Lucia, one of the Caribbean area naval bases, by the United States.

St. Lucia is about 25 miles south of Martinique, French-occupied island.

British warships have kept a close watch on Martinique since the French capitulation because an aircraft carrier with American planes aboard and a cruiser are anchored there.

The American destroyer the Overton, Hamilton and the Sturges, which are also equipped with anti-aircraft guns, are also anchored there, perhaps to join the fleet in the event of a German attack on the island.

SAILORS LIVE SEVENTY DAYS IN OPEN BOAT

Two British Seamen Reach Bahamas—Five Companions Perish

NASIRI, THE Bahamas, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Two British seamen from the freighter Anglo-Saxon reported sunk by a Nazi raider 500 miles southwest of the Azores, came to the end of a 70-day, 2,500-mile odyssey in an open 16-foot boat during which their five companions perished.

They were Robert Taggart, of Cardiff, 19, and Wilbert Roy Wadsworth, 24, of Newport, who drifted Wednesday night into Governor's harbor at nearby Eleuthera Island, and were flown here by plane yesterday.

Their principal article of diet had been seaweed. Two in their companions, wounded when the raider machine gunned the boats, died. Two others, crazed by heat and thirst, jumped overboard. The fifth cut his throat with a razor.

SEAWEED DIET

When their water supply was exhausted they managed to catch some rain water, but during the last eight days they had nothing to drink. Supplementing their diet with seaweed had been one flying fish and one gar fish which they were able to catch.

Both were burnt black by the sun.

The Anglo-Saxon, 3,500-ton tug freighter, built in 1929 and belonging to the Nitrate Steamship Company Ltd., with home port at London, was sighted by a German U-boat on Oct. 21, the men said. They took to the boat and the vessel was sunk.

Survivor records reveal that the men drifted along the coast of the Bahamas in an open boat, but an open boat is probably not an apt description of the Anglo-Saxon, which was a motor launch, 16 feet long, after their historic mission in the 18th century. He sailed 100 miles from the South Sea Islands to Timor in the East Indies, in what was regarded as a remarkable feat of navigation.

SEEN BY FARMER

Wednesday a farmer saw the men cowering behind the beach on Eleuthera Island and attempting to reach some trees. They were given encouragement and first aid before being transferred here. Wadsworth, who lost 80 pounds during his open-boat voyage, was able to walk when he arrived, but Taggart had to be supported.

A raider reported as the Narvik had been operating in southern waters. She has been described as a 10,000-ton ship capable of 19 knots, faster than most freighters in the West Indies. She carries 200 men, according to reports of British sailors, and flies the Swedish flag. She has been reported to have disappeared along with the Anglo-Saxon which is hailed up for news.

On July 28 sailors on the Norwegian vessel Ull, arriving in New York, reported they had obtained this description of the raider from British sailors who reported that the freighter Daivian was attacked by her 30 miles northeast of the Virgin Islands July 18. The crew was said to have been taken prisoner. Only July 13 she sighted another freighter, the King John, attacked and sunk. 68 of her crew in three life-line boats.

Dr. Aust, 1 reports said the Narvik may have been the raider which three days earlier engaged the Alfred, British armed merchant cruiser, and was reported damaged in a fight off the Brazilian coast.

H.M.C.S. Margaree Sunk In North Atlantic While On Convoy Duty

In the worst disaster in the history of the Royal Canadian Navy, 140 lives were lost when the destroyer Margaree went down after a collision in the North Atlantic while on convoy duty. The Margaree was formerly the British destroyer Diana and had been turned over to the Canadian navy to replace H.M.C.S. Fraser which was sunk in a collision off the coast of France. A sister ship of the Margaree is pictured, lower left. Commander J. W. R. Taylor, right, of Halifax, who left at the 24th to take over command of the Margaree, went down with the ship. Sub-Lieut. R. W. Timmrell, upper left, of Highbury, B.C., one of the 13 survivors of the sinking, is shown with Sub-Lieut. J. W. Gully, one of the 13 survivors, at their visit to High Commissioner Vincent Massey at Canada House in London recently.

Dr. Aust, 1 reports said the Narvik may have been the raider which three days earlier engaged the Alfred, British armed merchant cruiser, and was reported damaged in a fight off the Brazilian coast.

War Seen Drawing Nearer To South Africa By Smuts

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Prime Minister Jan Smuts said Thursday night that the war is heading quickly toward South Africa and that the Union must redouble its defence preparations.

Recent developments in the war situation, he said, point more strongly toward the view that Africa will soon become a more important battlefield.

Declaring there is no safety in neutrality, Gen. Smuts said the Union must be prepared to meet a "calm and contempt of the rights of small nations."

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Secret balloting was reported underway Thursday among 400 union freight handlers employed by the two major railway companies on the Montreal waterfront to find out whether they favor a strike in an effort to obtain higher wages.

W. Rowe, general chairman for the Canadian Pacific of the Brotherhood of Railway and Shipbuilding Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employees, said result of the vote will be known early next week. Rowe said the result would be considered carefully, as union leaders recognized the wartime importance of the work being done by the men.

STATE MEDICAL SCHEME SHOWS SMALL DEFICIT

REGINA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—The first year's operation of the first unit basis in Saskatchewan has resulted in an operating deficit of $5,686, it was announced Thursday by Matt Anderson, rever of the rural municipality of Melville.

The scheme in health district No. 1, which comprises the rural municipality and the urban units, Brauer, Bullock and Sifton, was financed on a compulsory annual levy of 85 per cent of population. For this sum complete medical care, hospitalization to a maximum limit of 21 days, and medicines, was provided.

In view of the deficit, which amounts to $1 per head of population, it has been decided to increase the levy for the second year, commencing Oct. 1, 1940, to 96 per cent. Population, and to eliminate free drugs, which cost a total of $1,200 during the first 12 months.

U. S. WILL BUILD MERCHANT SHIPS FOR G. T. BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Hon. C. D. Howe, Canadian minister of commerce and supply, left Washington for New York Thursday after what was believed successful conclusion of negotiations for construction in United States of merchant ships for Great Britain.

Mr. Howe left by plane immediately after lunching with Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, who subsequently announced at a press conference that Britain had ordered a "large number" of freighters of standard type to be built in United States. He said negotiations are "going smoothly."

A special British mission is here to arrange for the big shipbuilding order, said to involve $500,000,000, and it was believed that Mr. Howe's Washington visit was made primarily to allay the discussion. It was reported unofficially that Canadian shipyards may participate in the order.

He asserted he has "seen enough in central America to scare me stiff. In Mexico the Nazis have at least 20,000 training sharpshooters. ## NURSE INJURED AS CAR STRIKES BRIDGE RAILING

Exclusion to Edmonton Bulletin

DAWSON CREEK, Nov. 1.—Miss C. D. Davies, R.N., P.H.N., of Vancouver, who arrived here about a week ago to take over duties on the Fort St. John hospital, is a patient in St. Joseph's hospital suffering from shock, cuts and bruises received when a small car she was driving skidded on the highway and struck a bridge railing near the hospital. Miss Davies was on the way to the hospital at the time.

The impact smashed the wind shield, broke the bumper, sent the radiator in a shape and drove the engine back out of position. Heavy timber, the bridge also was broken. The car rebounded, turned over about and slid backward down a 12-foot embankment, landing up against a stump just at the edge of another steep hillside to the creek. No one saw the accident and Miss Davies was able to walk the last 100 yards to the hospital where her injuries were attended by Dr. McKeen. Luckily they were not of a serious nature.

Funeral services will be held at the Dalhousie funeral home for John J. Walker of Mill Valley, 11 miles west of here, who was killed Wednesday when his car crashed into the bridge and was killed. He was a member of the local branch of the Canadian Legion.

Usual Ceremonies Are To Be Cancelled Owing To War Conditions

LONDON, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Britain will forgo the traditional 10 minutes of silence at 11 a.m. Armistice Day, Nov. 11, for the first time.

Sunday, Nov. 10, will, however, be a national day of remembrance and dedication. The Archbishop of Canterbury has announced that "those who already, in the present war have given their lives will be remembered with the First Great War dead, and we shall dedicate ourselves to finishing, if it may be, the work which the men of 1914-18 sought to do."

4 SURVIVORS OF DESTROYER LAND BERMUDA

Canadian Naval Vessel
Margaree Cut In Two
In Collision

By FORD BAXTER

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 1.—(CP)—The 34 men who clung to life when H.M.C.S. Margaree went down with 142 of their shipmates in an Atlantic convoy collision were safe in this British port today, bound for Canada to join the ranks of the Canadian and British navies.

All unscathed despite the swift thrust of death in the night hours of Oct. 22, the six officers and 28 ratings came to Hamilton aboard the merchant ship that knifed into the destroyer while she was enroute a convoy across the Atlantic after taking up service with the Royal Canadian Navy as replacement for the sunken destroyer Fraser.

CUT IN TWO

While none came the disclosure that the Margaree, recently acquired from the Royal Navy, was sliced in two by the bow of the colliding freighter when they met in the darkness as they transited the night lights. Apparently the warcraft's halves plummeted under the Atlantic's surface like stone, leaving most of her crew no chance for escape.

But the details of the turbulent minutes before and after the crash still remained in the consciousness of those Thursday. Newsweek were not permitted to hear survivors accounts pending a mass interview today.

The rescued men—22 from the Canadian navy and two from the Royal Navy—were to be taken to Canada as soon as transportation could be arranged. It was announced. Meanwhile, a part of inquiry was to be held here.

SEVEN KNOWN DEAD IN CREW FAMOUS LINER

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—(CP)—A list of seven known dead, 18 missing and nine in hospital from the crew of the Empress of Britain, sunk recently by enemy action, was announced today by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

None are Canadians but many of the casualties are well known in Canadian ports where the 42,348-ton liner had called during her nine-year career as flag and world-cruise ship, her career.

The casualty list made public here today contains only the names of crew members.

Exquisite pencil never looks artificial if it is handled the way an artist uses a drawing pencil to make a sketch. He works with light, shaded strokes, to build lines, and blends ears mark into the one before it. Most eyes are flattered if the brow follows the natural bone structure of the eye socket and extends down the corner of the eye.

Sketch in makeup with a well-sharpened crayon the kind that come encased in wood like a lead pencil on most artists. Its color must match the rest of your brow exactly. Shady eye shadow on a table or in your other hand. Begin to sketch with light, short strokes actually tracing a few hairs in the centre of the brow. When you come to the end of the brow, draw similar lines on your skin following the natural arc of the brow and gradually lighten your handwork until there is just one slender line at the end of your new brow. That is all expert pencil can do for you. It will not double as mascara and never use to line the eye, unless you want to look like a burlesque queen.

Your Figure, Madame!

By IDA JEAN KAIN

All in the day's work for members of the Radio City Music Hall's Ballet Corps are the exercises alone, which explains why lovely Helen Leitch and the other dancers of the group have such exquisite figures.

What it takes to reduce slimming to beautiful simplicity is a paying job that demands daily exercise and depends on perfect weight. Those eternally lovely Radio City Music Hall's famous ballet corps can't even begin to understand why anyone has trouble gaining streamlined.

Not that they don't have to watch the scale! You may have an exaggerated idea of exercise and imagine that the hours put in rehearsing every day would let them eat as they please. But Florence Ruge, artistic director and one of the stars, has come to the conclusion that it is physically impossible for anyone to exercise so much that she can gorge on chocolate candy and not gain weight!

The point is when you dance to not get over-eaten—and continue to dance! Under these circumstances, it seems to become imperative to eat only the sweets and rich foods. And when those foods are eaten, they are eaten up! As a result, diet director Ruge, "I have known girls to lose from 12 to 15 pounds in one month. They didn't do it in the strict sense of the word—and if anything, they improved their diets." There's a lesson for the girl in her teens and twenties who worries about being too plump.

Big Shipment of War Needs Sent Britain

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Two hundred and sixty cases containing over 10,000 tons of clothing, food, yarn, surgical instruments, children's toys and medical supplies, were shipped to Great Britain and Canada during the last 10 days, Mrs. Walter Latham, president of Bundles for Britain, Incorporated, announced Thursday night.

The consignments covered some 200 cases of children's only for use in air raid shelters in London.

Three cases of knitted garments were sent to Canada to assist the war effort, which will mean the remaining overseas United States destroyers traded to Britain.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Mrs. Winston Churchill, wife of the British prime minister, called from London Thursday night her thanks for the "growing volume of help from America which inspires it moves everyone over here."

Mrs. Churchill is the honorary sponsor of Bundles for Britain and has been keeping her fingers busy in the growing volume of help from America which inspires it moves everyone over here.

French Ships May Be Used In Greek Defence

By IDA JEAN KAIN

CAIRO, Nov. 1.—(UPI)—Official sources indicated today that the French warships sent to Alexandria after the French armistice eventually might be used to Greece.

Naval sources said that nothing definite had been decided as yet, but it was believed that the use of the French warships in Egyptian waters would depend on whether the Vichy government, which the French fleet in the western Mediterranean is loyal to, would permit them to be used.

GERMANS HAVE MANY 'INVASION' TROOPS READY

By FREDERICK KUH

LONDON, Nov. 1.—(UPI)—Germany now had about 550,000 troops stationed within striking distance of Great Britain in addition to 225,000 stationed in not near Scandinavia, a responsible non-British military authority said today.

British sources reported that about 70 German divisions, or 1,000,000 men, were stationed in southern Germany, Austria and Slovakia, ready for a possible blow at the Balkans.

The non-British informant reported that the remainder of the German army was distributed as follows:

Central Germany—70 to 75 divisions, or up to 1,000,000 men.

In and near Scandinavia, 15 divisions of 225,000 men.

Alberta Advocates Alaskan Highway Via Peace River and Great Slave Lake

W. A. Fallow Asserts Such a Road Would Be Much Less Expensive To Build and Also To Maintain—Four Routes Being Considered

By WILLIAM BAKER, JR.
Central Press Canadian Writer

"If the Alaska highway is put through the mountains it will be next to impossible to keep it open in places where there is deep snow with a run-off of 20 to 25 feet in the spring," W. A. Fallow, Alberta advocate of public works, told today.

"All of Canada and the United States will be better served by a road via Peace River and Great Slave lake," Mr. Fallow asserted.

"This would be much less expensive to build than a road through the mountains where the cost of construction, plus maintenance, would be almost prohibitive."

"For two million dollars we can put through a serviceable all-weather highway, 34 feet wide to Great Slave lake," the Alberta official stated, "as compared with the 15 or 20 million it is estimated the mountain road would cost and to which would have to be added many more millions before the road was finished. There are millions of dollars wouldn't put anything but a trail through the Rocky mountains for 15 or 20 hundred miles."

Canada border and Dawson in the Yukon.

Route "A" is via Vancouver, Hazelton and Whitehorse. There is now a gravel road from the border at Blaine, Wash., to Hazelton, 480 miles, and an earth road a few miles farther north. There is an earth road also from Vanderhoof, B.C., northward some 50 miles, toward Finlay Forks, a point about 450 miles from the border. Route "B" is via Finlay Forks and Lower Fort, B.C.

COMMITTEE REPORTS ON "B" The Canadian section of a joint commission (Charles Stewart, chairman), which is considering the advantages of various routes, reported on Route "B" as follows:

"Generally speaking, it appears from the information before the commission that the 'B' route would present few engineering difficulties, would not be expensive, either to build or to maintain, would give convenient access to feeder highways from Alberta through the various mountain passes, would tap valuable natural resources, and would lead directly to Dawson by the Alaskan boundary."

However, some of the few men who have travelled the Porcupine, Finlay, Finch and Keekika rivers, along which Route "B" is proposed, say that blasting, grading and bridge building which may be necessary would cause the per-mile construction there to be disproportionately high, and that rock slides, snow and rain would make the road difficult to keep open and particularly dangerous to tourists not experienced in mountain driving. This route is said to present less difficulty to Peace river, thence via

GERMANS WILL SET MILLION FRENCH FREE

Release Provided In An Agreement In Principle

By CHARLES S. FOLEY, JR.
REUTERS, Switzerland, Nov. 1.

(AP)—Grand release of 1,000,000 French prisoners by the Germans is provided in an "agreement in principle" reached with Nazi leaders by Vice-Premier Laval of the Vichy regime, diplomatic sources said today.

The agreement, Swiss sources asserted, is Laval's answer to the demand which he hopes to win at least temporary approval and support of the mass of French people for the new government's program of collaborating with the Axis power.

When he plans to play his role in the future, it was said.

Almost every family in France has a son, brother, husband or close relative in the "vanished legion" of 1,500,000 or more prisoners now in concentration camps in Germany or German-occupied parts of France. Announcement that the third of these men soon would be freed has certainly won the approval of 500,000 to 1,000,000.

About 500,000 prisoners, diplomatic sources said, will be freed to Germany, the rest to the east of the war.

Some still will be held because of sympathy with the German movement of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, it was said, and others because they are in zones along the English Channel and north coast of France reserved to German military operations.

Return of prisoners may well come in the form of a general amnesty of employment to dominant French industry, only beginning its step-by-step encouragement of the Vichy regime.

1,000,000 JOBLESS According to Vichy figures, there now are 1,000,000 unemployed in France without counting prisoners held in German camps. The Paris regime alone.

However, French industrialists have given little German-made goods, they are in zones along the English Channel and north coast of France reserved to German military operations.

We Must Not Fail

The Canadian Red Cross needs $5,000,000. Albertans are asked to contribute $300,000, the same amount they subscribed last year. They gave then in expectation that their country would be needed, and in confidence that their contribution would be needed. Now they know that the real need is greater than seemed likely a year ago, while the work done with their contributions of last year is still going on. They are asked for will accomplish maximum results.

Appeals to the liberality of the public are many, and war taxes make substantial inroads on the incomes of all. But the Red Cross is not asking for more than it needs to fall short. The immediate calls upon it grow as our national war effort expands, while every bombing raid on Britain leaves thousands of our people in need of relief. We are relieved to say nothing of the work of mercy carried on in occupied countries, or the services rendered by this organization in

"Total" War Hits Canada

It has been a bad week for Canada at sea. A second merchant ship has been lost by "enemy action" and 28 of her crew are missing, and a mine-sweeper with a crew of 30, two divers and support crew in a storm off the coast of the Azores, were told to blow up the ship to make up the numbers.

To be announced within a period of four days, the more shocking because our merchant vessels and warships suffered relatively few losses during the whole first year of the war.

Both ships and men were lost because of poor conditions, and alike the merchant seamen and navalmen died in war service.

It is not surprising that the world is haunted by pirates who ignore the rules of civilized nations in wartime, for had these rules been observed three of these disasters would not have occurred and perhaps the fourth too.

Things That "May" Happen

French Hitler says the deal he has struck with Pétain is his own, that he planned and executed it, even without pressure from the military. He says he has not been threatened, nor his glory envied. The best he is able to say for the bargain is that conscription will be ended, and that the people of France, that the French war prisoners in Germany may be somewhat better treated, and that occupied zones may be harrowed to the benefit of the French people. He says that the Nazi army which Frenchmen have paid may be cut to something less than the present strength of around 500,000 men per day, areas included.

"May" is the key-word in this last promise. Pétain says he will not know whether Hitler will do any of the suggested concessions will be made. Pétain does not even claim to have extracted a promise of permanent settlement from Hitler, but, knowing what a Hitler promise is worth, he is to hoped the dreams will all come true. He says he will be going to Marshal's headquarters, and as likely to be away as turn into realities.

Hitler hopes Pétain's deal has battered away, so far as he could, the last vestige of French independence and honor. He says he will be the first to be a junior partner in the Axis. But it is significant that he tells his countrymen they, not question his wisdom, find fault with his policy, but that he will be the man on whom he has undertaken to sell them into slavery. They must "take it and thank him." But he says he will not say they will not like it. That is why their answer was a muzzled, discussion forbidden, and they must be cut out to any who listen to foreign broadcasts.

Boston Cheers for Britain

It is great good news that President Johnson is urging the priorities board to approve Great Britain's request to be allowed to place orders for 12,000 more airplanes with United States firms. Good news because Britain needs the planes, which are in fact being built by the R.A.F. for use of machines with the enemy. Also because the President evidently believes these planes can be built for Britain without seriously hampering the carrying out of the U.S. Strategic Air Command. Britain and its allies are demanding first-line defence, and they are, the program is second—and last-line. Next to more fighting machines for Britain, more fighting machines for the U.S. are what we most everywhere must want.

Canadian Bets Fall Slightly Report Shows

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Canadians sent $21,355,037 whirling around the dominion's race tracks with the thoroughbred during the 1940 racing season, the department of agriculture announced today.

This was a decrease of $20,486 or slightly more than 1 per cent from the $21,655,523 wagered on Canadian horse races in 1939.

The agriculture department figures are preliminary, being at tracks of 26 racing associations which held 26 race meetings this season.

It reported race receipts this year were $603,045, compared with $685,023 a year ago, a decrease of $82,023, but it added "the receipts do not show a true picture of the attendance as some tracks have averaged fewer days than others. The ladies are admitted on payment of the provincial tax only, while some tracks are quite liberal with free passes."

PURSES DOWN
By close money paid this year showed a decrease of $18,846, amounting to $1,015,324 instead of $1,034,170.

There was one day less of racing this summer, because the two Edmonton meetings only 14 days, compared with 15 last year. There were four less races—2,002 compared with 2,040—and 400 less starts—16,674 compared with 17,074.

The largest amount wagered at any one meeting was at the fall meeting at Differburg Park, Toronto, $1,267,742. The smallest amount was the $464 wagered at the Wednesday meeting at Claresholm, Alta.

PRAIRIES UP
By close, wagering increased at three prairie racing centres—Calgary, Regina and Saskatoon—last year, compared with 1939. At Vancouver, Victoria, Hamilton, Ont., and Niagara Falls, Ont., however, it declined.

Statistics by cities, with last year's figure in brackets:

REPUBLICANS TRY WORKING SOLID SOUTH

Willkie Represented as Insurgent Democrat—May Carry Few States

By H. H. PETERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(CP)—New dispatches from the "solid south"—the great belt in the United States running from Maryland south and west to Texas—Thursday night indicated that only in a couple of states does President Roosevelt stand much chance of suffering a setback next Tuesday.

Down there, where 12 states have 120 votes in the electoral college, supporting a Republican just has not done—and has not been done since the war between the States except for a few elections, such as in 1928 when five of them, Florida, Virginia, North Carolina, Texas and Tennessee, favored Herbert Hoover over Al Smith.

AN "INSURGENT"

So, the Associated Press reports, the supporters of Wendell Willkie, the Republican candidate, are looking him not as a Republican, but as an insurgent Democrat who has broken with the "Old Deal" party of the president. Willkie was formerly a Democrat.

Willkie supporters are concentrating much of their effort upon Tennessee, where the former president of the Commonwealth and Southern, carried on his utilities fight against the Tennessee valley authority. They are also working hard in Maryland and Kentucky, Florida and Virginia. If they can carry any two or three of these, it is believed they will have fulfilled their best expectations.

Since 1928, it has been literally true that the Democratic nomination in the south is tantamount to election.

TOO CONFIDENT

Henceforth, this year's anti-Roosevelt campaign is seeking to get his election to the polls in support numbers. As one Republican in Kentucky put it:

"The Willkie campaign has been carried out largely by machine politicians, radio addresses, newspaper advertising and bill-board appeals rather than by mass meetings and extensive stamping."

The states making up the solid south are Kentucky, with 11 electoral votes; Maryland, with eight; Virginia, with 11; North Carolina, with 13; South Carolina, with 11; Alabama, with 11; Tennessee, with 11; Louisiana, with 10; Kansas, with nine; and Tennessee, with 11.

The Italian campaign over Albania, which they took over in April, 1940. Mountain valleys which run through both countries furnished easy passage.

To get to the British of Salonika, the Italians would have to go through Turkey. Once in Greece, they have the choice of a land route, via the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, or bringing across the islands of the Aegean Sea.

The Dardanelles and Bosphorus are Russia's only outlet to the Black Sea to the Mediterranean.

Bomb Splinters

By DOLLY AN AMMAN

LONDON, Nov. 1.—(CP)—

When a delayed action bomb fell on the outskirts of London, war-dreaded civilians and soldiers were scattered in panic. A British soldier was killed and a British soldier was wounded.

An 87-year-old woman after being taken from her bombed London home said to ambulance workers who asked if she was all right: "Yes, I'm fine, but if any of you boys are going back into that rubble you might bring my killing. I hate sitting around doing nothing."

Bombs damaged three new civil service offices in London, took shop. The first day this office was opened, the second day it was closed, and the third day it was closed.

Peter Kent, 18, who lives in Canada, was killed and 15 to 20 others were killed.

CANADA NAVY SHIP MAKES 2 SEA RESCUES

118 Persons From Vessels Torpedoed By Nazis Are Taken From Sea

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—

A Canadian destroyer has made two rescues in British waters, Navy Minister Macdonald announced in a statement issued at his press conference today.

In two days he said one destroyer, "unmanned" for reasons of security, had rescued 118 persons from the S.S. Burton and S.S. Wainwright, both torpedoed by German submarines.

The Burton, struck by two torpedoes, which killed 11 of those aboard, stayed afloat for three days.

The Wainwright sank within 15 minutes after being hit by one torpedo.

Those rescued included a five-month-old child, who was not taken to the hospital for treatment of his injuries.

First Lt. Steele said that the rescue work, which included hoisting the badly injured aboard in stretchers and lowering them away by hoist, was accomplished with amazing speed and smoothness.

"Men of this Canadian ship handled the situation like old hands," he said.

"Later it was thought that the men who had been rescued were being taken to the hospital for treatment of their injuries."
